DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention..

Applicant describes Figure 3 as illustrating a relationship between lamp current in C being in phase whereas the states of A, B and D, E show an out of phase relationship. The light output appears the same in all instances with respect to the color change according to the illustration.

Further, it is not understood what is meant by a "phase" of a color sequential color cycle and additionally what such phase is when applied to all colors being projected as scrolling bands.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the types of color separation utilized in the invention must be illustrated or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 3, 6, 7-8, 10-11 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Marshall et al. (5,706,061).

Marshall et al. discloses a color projection device comprising:

a light valve (26) for modulating incident light;

an AC light source (14) for generating light containing color components;

an illumination unit (24) for sequentially illuminating the modulator with sequential colored lights.

As noted in Column 8 Lines 11-23, "the switching frequency of the lamp... is much higher than and multiple of the color wheel rotation frequency". This is an out-of-phase relationship, as best the term can be understood.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Marshall et al.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the illumination system of Marshall by substituting other types of light valves known to be used in color sequential projection systems, such as LC systems, because such light valves behave similarly when exposed to light.

7. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Marshall et al. in view of Stark et al. .

Marshall et al. discloses the invention substantially as claimed but does not teach the provision of a white filter segment.

Stark et al. teach the addition of a white filter segment to a multicolor filter device.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention to modify the device of Marshall et al. by the addition of a white filter segment in order to enhance the brightness of the projected image.
